

See You In Heaven

Guardian

It's hard to say goodbye, my friend
But this waiting can last forever
Sooner or later the sun must set
Ending this time together

Still I wish that I had one more chance
To spend another day with you
But even though I know I can't
I'll see you in Heaven
I'll see you in Heaven

It's hard to say goodbye, my friend
But this waiting can last forever
Sooner or later the sun must set
Ending this time together

Still I wish that I had one more chance
To spend another day with you
But even though I know I can't
I'll see you in Heaven
I'll see you in Heaven

The only thing that hurts more than losing you
Are all of the years, living without you
I wanna run back to you
And show you the life I've lived without you
Cause living without you is the only thing that hurts more than you

I see your picture of a little child
Standing alone, wondering where you are
I can't believe how this child has grown
Living this life
Sometimes so alone

Wishing I had one more chance
To have you hold me once again
And even though I know you can't
You'll hold me in Heaven
You'll hold me in Heaven

It's hard to say goodbye, my friend
But this waiting can last forever
Sooner or later the sun must set
Ending this time together

I've let so many years of life go by Thinking it's all worked out
Now I realize I do know how
To say that it's over
And let you go for now

Still I wish that I had one more chance
To say I love you one more time
And even though I know I can't
I'll say it in Heaven
I'll say it in Heaven

It's hard to say goodbye, my friend
But this waiting can last forever
Sooner or later the sun must set
Ending this time together
