

Sleep Eternal

Guardians of Time

Sleep eternal. Sleep, you'll be free.
Sleep eternal. Close your eyes then you will...
See my splendor, see my beauty, see the realm of time.
Don't you worry. Don't be scared. All will be revealed.
Awake yet you're dreaming. Know you'll be divine.

No one's intervening. Now you will be mine
No tomorrow. Without me by your side.
No tomorrow. Without my soft embrace.

Not awaken. Don't open your eyes.
Revelation. It all will come...

What has happened? Who has done this? What has broken loose?
Don't you worry. Don't be scared. All will be revealed.

No tomorrow. Without me by your side.
No tomorrow. Without my soft embrace.
No tomorrow. I can't let this go on.
No tomorrow. I will make it undone.

All are dreaming. And my name is carved in stone.
You're my chosen. You'll never be alone.
What has happened? Who has done this?
What has broken loose.
Don't you worry. Don't be scared. All will be revealed.

No tomorrow. Without me by your side.
No tomorrow. Without my soft embrace.
