

At Least a M

Gucci Mane

I'm a walking lick, I look like a robber
You niggas ain't mobbin', you know you got a problem
You niggas ain't legit, see Gucci with the shit
You keep on talking slick then I'ma go and get the stick
Caught it as a kid, still done talking brick
Used to have them ninety six impalas sitting on blades shopping
, that was ninety six, they treat me like a prince
When I was behind the fence you was acting like a bitch
So I might slap you like a pimp
My chef is cooking shrimp
The haters tryna' knock me off my throne but they can't do this like the thirtieth attempt
And you look like a wimp
And I don't even associate with niggas
Who associates don't have at least a M

Have at least a M
I don't even associate with niggas who associates don't have at least a M
Have at least a M
I don't even associate with niggas who associates don't have at least a M
Have at least a M
I don't even associate with niggas whose associates don't have
at least a M
Have at least a M
I don't even associate with niggas whose associates don't have
at least a M
