

Sometimes

Gucci Mane

I know God can't be mad at me Because all the blessing he gave me!
riding round wit my top down, I'm lookin up at tha galaxy
A lot of girls can't stand me
They don't really understand me Can't get half of my phantom ya ain't gettin half of my mansion Lost my homie to gun fire Nigga part of my empire
Every since that day, I've been ridin late like a vampire People say I'm a addict, got a lot of bad habits.
love smokin that broccoli love stackin that cabbage Shout out to my jeweler damn he such a good jeweler shout out to my shooter, damn ya such a good shooter everytime i ride clean bumper to bumper Every time that I slide throw my top in the dumpster I'm OG ..got more guns that
