

Acorns & Orioles

Guided by Voices

Over the summer
Somehow waiting
Sometimes craving
And i gave it all away
Let my mind slip away
Kept everyone away
I can't tell you anything
You don't already know
I can't tell you anything
You don't already know
I can't tell you anything
I am the minister, and the imposter
You said i'm on my own
But i am not alone
You are the militant
Fighting to bring me home
I can't tell you anything
You don't already know
I can't tell you anything
You don't already know
I can't tell you anything
I can't tell you anything
You don't already know...
