

My Son Cool

Guided by Voices

(R. Pollard)

Decide now!

Decide now before you continue

The list is complete without your permission

I finally know how, I finally can't quit

And ancient ideas are on fire, my love

Completely the rope has been severed

The night screams for contact and clue

I must keep a journal

I must boast a victory

And the hellfire is dying around you, my love

Around you, my love X12
