Guided by Voices

You could have gotten to know
In the tinted snow
And let the coast emotions
That I haven't seen in some months

The hidden spirit
Will make the mount to ghost town
Slow down! To the planet scope
And if you promised to turn up

You're just not here anymore
And let the spectators abolish
Until the buildings form beyond
You only need us to be us

And make the best of downtown
Till we run town
Let the planet scope
Let the records score
