

The Unsinkable Fats Domino

Guided by Voices

How's your life and cycles?
Compared to your next rival?
A '69 revival?
A '005 survival?

Then disregard unthinkable
And be like the unsinkable Fats Domino

And tell it all around them
Above the swell they found him
On common grounds that drown them
No higher than the fountains

Of water not so drinkable
Except to the unsinkable Fats Domino

Animals sound the trumpets
Wimpy crowns will know
Silence will sink the carpet
Saints will drink and move too slow
They'll be too drunk to know

Beyond normal abilities
And nuclear facilities
It's where the search them found him
It's where we'd like to meet you

The water is undrinkable
Except for the unsinkable Fats Domino
So be light and unsinkable
Make disbelief unthinkable
