

Unspirited

Guided by Voices

Even when you're lifted by the lie
Heaven sent and gifted—ask them why
Never give it all up—never try
All their hearts are breaking
Unspirited
The less than life you live
The lessons make you lame, boy
The same, boy
Everywhere that you go, I'm with you now
When you lose it all, you'll think of me
When you take the fall, you'll drink to me
I'm the one who did it painlessly
I'm the one that does it
Unspirited
