Until Next Time

Guided by Voices

I'm of to work again There goes Mario Andreddy She's a real believer In getting there first everytime The first shall be the last And the last shall be the first Until next time Well, you're unbelievable In the mystic air Was it just not in your cause It seems so unfair! So line 'em up Shine 'em up and get them prepared You're the next generation The first shall be the last And the last shall be the first Until next time
