

Waves

Guided by Voices

I'm awoken
To the sound of a deafening horn
I'm shaken
By the creak of an opening door

As the waves crash around me

I'm breaking
Cracking my heavenly bones
And a vision
Of a vision won't leave me alone

I'm falling
But the ground keeps falling away
I can see you
But I couldn't say where you are

As the waves crash around me
