

Wormhole

Guided by Voices

I am an earthworm following
There is a nighthawk watching me crawling
La la la la - it's a lonely night
I'll take the airwaves home tonight crawl with me in to the hole
Where everyone can hide
We're in the wormhole
Seeking to be safe again
Without a single brave soul
Leaking out tonight
After the fires there's a falling rain
Washing us free of the daily pain
Off the hook and down the drain
And out to the other side
To where the soil is rich and muddy in the riverbed
Feed on the urgent promise
Of the dead tonight
