

Go Away

Guillemots

When a sunny day is not a sunny day
All you've really left to do is pray
When a rainy day is not a rainy day
What more, what more, what more could I ever say?
Except I

When a walk in the park only renders darkness
When a walk in the park only renders darkness
When a walk in the park only renders darkness
'Cause there are no ducks to feed
Feed, feed, feed, feed

When you cannot love with both your hands

Well chop them off, chop them off
And bury them in the sand
