

Sometimes I Remember Wrong

Guillemots

I hope you'll be alright
Alright, seeing your friends
Alright

I hoped you'd be alright

Could we be somewhere dark?
Could we be anywhere at all?

Maybe I'll try to forget you
Though you hold a blade in my heart

Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong

Fly on across the dell
My little bluebell
Taking off above my head
All things will live until they're dead

Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong

So pull the power on the band
I still don't want to understand
So if it's just the way it is
If everything ends up like this
Let everybody go abroad

Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
Sometimes I remember wrong
