Crazy You

Oh crazy you What am I supoused to do? Heaven knows I tried to change you But you just keep getting stranger I say Oh crazy you What the hell's got air to you? While you're trying to impress me With your plastic fleer ingectors

I'm driving in my car Every light I see is a star And it makes me feel so happy, what's wrong?

I'm rebeled in sway in time And the street light's calling my name And the goldfish keep on singing king kong

Oh crazy you Where's the life that we once knew? With your anger and your madness All your laugh reveils your sadness

I say Oh crazy you Was it all a game to you? All the friends you left behind you They're all still there to remind you Crazy you

Don't beg me I don't want to I don't want to

Oh crazy you What am I supoused to do? Heaven knows I tried to change you But you just keep getting stranger

I say Oh crazy you where's the life that we once knew? While the wrold outside is madness We can drive away the sadness Crazy you...

I thought that I knew you But now I see right through you Don't beg me, I don't want to Don't beg me, do what you do
