

Stand In Line

Gun

You make me wanna rise
You make me wonder why
No-one can hold your hand

We've lost our self control
We've got no way to go
You'll never take our pride

Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line

You built this world of lies
You made us sacrifice
You tried to bring me down

You cause this pain inside
I know you've got no right
You tried to rule my life

Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
I could never look up to nobody like you no
I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
And I'm doing alright so get out of my life
I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
Can you see, can you see
That I'm everything you'll never be

Could you come back, come back, come back

Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
Never thought of looking up to nobody like you
I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line
Can you see, can you see
That I'm everything you'll never be

Sometimes I get so blind
Sometimes I sacrifice
Sometimes I take that chance
It makes me wonder why
You got to take a chance
You cause the pain inside
I only want what's mine
You built this world of lies
You made me sacrifice
You tried to bring me down
