Stand In Line

You make me wanna rise You make me wonder why No-one can hold your hand

We've lost our self control We've got no way to go You'll never take our pride

Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line

You built this world of lies You made us sacrifice You tried to bring me down

You cause this pain inside I know you've got no right You tried to rule my life

Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line I could never look up to nobody like you no I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line And I'm doing alright so get out of my life I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line Can you see, can you see That I'm everything you'll never be

Could you come back, come back, come back

Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line Never thought of looking up to nobody like you I said Ohh Ohh Ohh I won't stand in line Can you see, can you see That I'm everything you'll never be

Sometimes I get so blind Sometimes I sacrifice Sometimes I take that chance It makes me wonder why You got to take a chance You cause the pain inside I only want what's mine You built this world of lies You made me sacrifice You tried to bring me down
