

Higher

Gungor

There is no one there is no one like You no one like you
in heaven or on earth

only good things can ever come from you even your judgment
is righteous and true

Your Name is sweeter than the rain that falls upon the face of dry and weary land and causes us to turn our face again Your Name be praised and be lifted higher

There is no one...

With every morning there are mercies new Your kindness
brings us back to you

Your name is stronger than the pain it's covering the shame of all these weary hands and causing us to turn our face again
Your Name be praised
