

Center of Attention

Guster

One of us
Won't last the night
Between you and me it's no surprise.
And there's two of us
Both can't be right
Neither will move till it's over.

I'm the center of attention
In the walls inside my head.
And no one will ever know it
If I keep my mouth shut tight.

My own little world
Is what I deserve
Cause I am the only child there is.
A king of it all
The belle of the ball
I promise I've always been like this.
Forever the first
My bubble can't burst
It's almost like only I exist.
Where everything's mine
If I can keep my mouth shut tight, tight, tight.

All by myself
I'm so much better on my own.
And way out there - oh oh oh
It is the same old place that it always has been.

I'm the center of attention
In the walls inside my head.
And no one will ever know it
If I keep my mouth shut tight, tight, tight.

My own little world
Is what I deserve
Cause I am the only child there is.
A king of it all
The belle of the ball
I promise I've always been like this.
Forever the first
My bubble can't burst
It's almost like only I exist.
Where everything's mine
If I can keep my mouth shut tight, tight, tight.

Both can't be right
Neither will move till it's over.

I'm the center of attention
In the walls inside my head
And no one will ever know it
If I keep my mouth shut tight.

Yeah no one will ever notice
If I keep my mouth shut tight, tight, tight

My own little world
Is what I deserve
Cause I am the only child there is.
A king of it all
