Guster

Into the maze
Enter the medicine handed down.
Within these veins
Bleeding with apathy till it drowns.

Am I your charity
For you to look so kind?
But your aim is not quite clear,
It's better if you leave in quiet.

Is this mood frightening?
And who are you sometimes?
Don't try and rescue me,
Go save someone else,
I'm far too gone.

Into the maze
Enter the medicine handed down.
Within these veins
Bleeding with apathy till it drowns.

No more to gain
Needing the ugliness that surrounds
Return again
Caught in the medicine handed down

Gasping, calling
I saw
I'm all alone
Grasping, crawling,
Is this not what you had planned?

Oh
I'm all alone.
Go on hero.
You're faking no one, not today

Stop this you're scaring me
Don't even know you now
Trying to rescue me
Go save someone else
I'm way past gone.

Into the maze
Enter the medicine handed down
Within these veins
Bleeding with apathy till it drowns

No more to gain
Needing the ugliness that surrounds
Return again
Caught in the medicine handed down

Into the maze
Enter the medicine handed down
Within these veins
Bleeding with apathy till it drowns

Oh
I'm all alone.
Go on hero.
You're faking no one, not today
