

Season

Guttermouth

this is the season
and i'll tell you something i gots a hard on and it aint for nothing

to commit punk rock treason that bullshit detector works better than it ever did before its all about its all about the cabbage watch it flow its all about its all about the cabbage and the blow (i'm in) the bands line their pockets you mosh and get jock itch if you listen to me i swear good things will come the bands all get rich while they tell you to bitch the key to success is a faux hawk and mascara its been done

i may sound jealous but i'd sell my own moms ass for millions of dollars to scream some stupid song i'd rather have cash stuffed up my ass

but complaining sounds cooler than working for the man but we all will
