

Man Will Be Boys

Guy Clark

INTRO: (a capella)

The only difference between men and boys
Is the size of their feet and the price of their toys

Always horsin' around, makin' too much noise
Aint it funny (aint it funny) how men'll be boys

MANDOLIN PART: X2

Kickin' tires round a pick-up truck
Drankin' beer and just cuttin' up
Smokin' and jokin' out behind the shed
Cussin' a blue streak till the girls turn red

CHORUS:

The only difference between men and boys
Is the size of their feet and the price of their toys
Always horsin' around, makin' too much noise
Aint it funny (aint it funny) how men'll be boys

MANDOLIN PART...

Sneakin' out of the house tryin' to have a little fun
Lookin' for sumthin that he aint done
Look what the cat dragged in at the break of dawn, woood
He aint passed out; he's campin' on the lawn

CHORUS...

MANDOLIN PART...

You can spend a lifetime growin' up
You can spend a lifetime in a rut
When it comes a time you got to make a choice
You know, most men would just as soon be boys

CHORUS 2x
