

Red Sails In The Sunset

Guy Lombardo

(Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea)
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me
(She sailed at the dawning, all day I've been blue)
Red sails in the sunset, I'm trusting in you

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And she goes sailing no more

(Red sails in the sunset, way out on the sea)
Oh, carry my loved one home safely to me

Swift wings you must borrow
Make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow
And she goes sailing no more

(Red sails in the sunset)
Way out on the sea (ooh-wee-ooh, wee-ooh)
Oh, carry my loved one
(Home safely to me)
