

Anthem of Why

Guy Sebastian

Joe lives with his folks at home
Smokes little plants he grows
Cool 4 a kids but 2day is the big 3 0
It seems all his hopes and dreams
Got lost in habitual fiends
Now he is crying tears of
What have could have been

He is saying why oh why does my life pass by
Could it have been that all this time saying why
U shoulda said how

30 candles u r blowin none of
Which deserve a light
The only music you've been playin
Is the anthem of why
Always dreamin never doin so they
Never did take flight
Still the music that your playin
Is the anthem of why oh oh ohh

Stacey dreamt of becoming a pop queen
Suddenly when she turned 15
Everything changed
She found out she had 1 on the way
So she, took all the posters of britney
Mariah, Beyonce and whitney and
With her dreams
She threw them all away

She was saying why oh why if not 4 that night
Could it all this time saying why
U shoulda said how
All the hopin all the wishin girl
U traded 4 a night
So the song that u r singin
Is the anthem of why
Now your feelin all your dreamin
Was just a waste of time
So the song thats your singin
Is the anthem of why
Oh ohh oh

Always saying why oh why does my life pass by
Could it have been that all this time saying why
U shoulda said how

All the hopin all the prayin
Know they should have never died
But they faded when u traded how 4 the anthem of why
U gotta dream it gotta feel it if
You ever wanna fly
Never sing it never play it
Its the anthem of why
