Imagine the Sunrise

Guy Sebastian

These little balls, they can try, they can try But they never holding us back
These little cubes they don't keep you alive
Ooh, I love to do that

Let's both pretend that this bed can fly It's our little secret, only us in the sky If you'll get tired baby I will take from you Imagine the sunrise with me We imagine the sunrise, don't we?

These little bones, maybe fragile, they say But you have a heart of a lion And no matter what they get throw away Somehow you manage all smile

Let's both pretend that this bed can fly It's our little secret, only us in the sky If you'll get tired baby I will take from you Imagine the sunrise with me You imagine the sunrise, don't you?

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, Ooh, ooh,

Let's both pretend that this bed can fly
It's our little secret, only us in the sky
If you'll get tired baby I will take from you
Imagine the sunrise with me
You imagine the sunrise, don't you?
Imagine the sunrise
