

My Beautiful Friend

Guy Sebastian

A million hearts are hurting 'cause they love you
Close your eyes and feel their arms around you now
And baby just like me
I'm sure they're thinking of you
But know somehow
This'll all work out

I sat upon the roof and stared the stars out
For a reason why or something I could do
Everything that mattered yesterday's so far now
Away from you
What you're going through, baby

But just you hold on, girl
You're gonna get through this
Yes you are
Try to be strong, girl
You know you can do this
'Cause baby love will conquer all
And it won't be long before
You'll be dancing in the rain again
My beautiful friend
My beautiful friend

If you ever feel there's no strength left inside you
Just know I'm by your side and holding your hand tight
Sometimes the moon is all the light you need to guide you
Through the darkest night
Let me be the light, yeah

But just you hold on, girl
You're gonna get through this
Yes you are, yes you are
Try to be strong, girl
You know you can do this
'Cause baby love will conquer all
And it won't be long before
You'll be dancing in the rain again

The desert soon will turn to bloom
You'll start to feel a change in you
The sky will seem a different blue
Than it ever was before
A whole new world will open up
As you stand face-to-face with love
And though I can't imagine how
You'll be more beautiful than you are now

You're gonna get through this
Don't you be afraid, girl, just hold on
You know you can do this
The only thing I'm sure of is that love will conquer all
And it won't be long before
You'll be dancing in the rain again
Won't you save me one dance with you then?
My beautiful friend
My beautiful friend

My beautiful friend
My beautiful friend

You've got to be strong
Girl, you'll get through this
Just hold on
Baby be strong
