Love Surgery

Yes you are Your flesh is insignificant... Still you drag yourself here on bloody stumps I recreate you am putate you You defile my womb hahahahaha However weak it still appealing Sights to send senses reeling To see your nipples stripped from you Tossed into my human stew

That's why you came to me... You were begging for love surgery It's the way - the way its got to be It's called love surgery Punks and priest, yeah they're all in there A beggars bludgeoned with their shinwear Bubbling cauldron choked with ichor Well I must think of something sicker

Anticipate the nipple rape Dish is almost done The child has died, he must be fried You humans are the same inside Now the cauldron starts to boil I can feel my anus heave The undergarment start to soil And now I know its time to leave When a demi-God blows bloody sperm It does not stop, it starts to worm And you shall achieve a maggot spunge-hole effect Ohhh Scary
