

Maggots

GWAR

Vile form of Necros lies rotting in your mind
Feasting like maggots, maggots in flesh
So you left your ruined cortex behind
Now the maggot knows glee as it nibbles on your spine

Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling like rain
Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling, falling like rain

Putrid pus-pools vomit blubonic plague
Bowels of the beast reek of puke
How to describe such vileness on the page
World maggot waits for the end of the age

Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling like rain
Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling, falling like rain

Like rain

Beneath the sky of maggots I walked
Until those maggots began to drop
I gaped at God to receive my gift
Bathed in maggots till the planet shift

The maggots are falling like rain
The maggots are falling like rain

Now in the halls of the necro-lord
Flash of fear when he sees my sword
I rape his woman, smoke his bong
Leave a little booger underneath his throne

The maggots are falling like rain
The maggots are falling like rain

Maggots, maggots
Maggots, maggots
Maggots, maggots

Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling like rain
Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling like rain

Maggots, maggots
Maggots, maggots
Maggots, maggots
Maggots are falling, falling like rain
