

Mary Anne

GWAR

You don't ever call me on the phone to say "Hell-O" and if I call you only say "goodbye".

Watching TV, how re-runs make me cry

Are you thinking of me like I'm thinking of you?

Are you all alone? If not, with who?

If you still had legs would you be walking out on me?

If I unlocked the chains would you stay?

My love is like your stench, it grows stronger everyday.

Will they ever stop talking about you and me?

Will they leave us alone and watch TV?

Mary Anne

Cross my heart and hope to die stick a needle in my eye Mary An ne

They say the world is ending.

Yeah, tomorrow is doomsday.

That don't really matter to us, baby.

Our love has been so perfect since the day you passed away.

Your heart is cold when it's in my hand.

Is it wrong to love you, Mary Anne?
