

Jeremiah Buys A Field

Gwen Stacy

i've come as far as i can make it on my own if i give up, all will be lost i've spent all my life holding back these tears it's time to let them go i'm scared i can't do this on my own but no one ever said a word about being alone i fail to see your presence here i'm with you, i'm with you!

been faced with death before, i hate it's beauty this light grows brighter this light's too much to take we'll take this world by storm they won't stand a freakin' chance as sweet as solidarity sounds it's but a thick black cloud that fills your lungs and flies away into the sky that you don't believe exists but my God does exist and He shed His precious blood so you could understand love into the sky that you don't believe this does exist

palms to the sky, this is my confession
