

Asking 4 It

Gwen Stefani

Oh, why,
Why would,
Why would you wanna be,
Why would you wanna be with someone like me?

Oh, why,
Why would,
Why would you wanna live,
Why would you wanna live so recklessly?

I don't know where I was,
I was lost, I was nothing
The real version of me,
I had never even seen
You're giving me truth,
And it's such an unfamiliar subject
So, could you answer me please...

Are you sure you wanna love me?
Are you sure you wanna love me?
You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
And I'm just saying, boy
You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
I dare ya, dara ya, dare ya

Oh, I know,
I know that it's a lot
I know that it's a lot to handle me
But it,
It is,
But it is what it is,
It's all apart of my broken history

I don't know where I was,
I was lost, I was nothing
The real version of me,
I had never even seen
You're giving me truth,
And it's such an unfamiliar subject
So, could you answer me please...

Are you sure you wanna love me?
Are you sure you wanna love me?
You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
And I'm just saying, boy
You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
I dare ya, dara ya, dare ya

Are you sure you wanna love me?
Are you sure you wanna love me?
Are you sure you wanna love me?
I dare ya, dara ya, dare ya

You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
And I'm just saying, boy
You're asking for it, you're asking for it,
I dare ya, dara ya, dare ya
