Sharp Words

Gyroscope

I've been watching the clock all night
I'm done i know the night is young
You've been talking the ears clean off my head
Therefore i haven't heard a word you've said
Anyway
We fall away
Your tongue is bleeding from all your sharp words
From all your sharp words
Could you hit me from where i am?
And would you hit me now where i stand?
I've been listening you know that
Obviously you know that
Anyway
We fall away
Your tongue is bleeding now
Anyway
It's the way
I am leaving now
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
Anyway
We fall away
My throat is bleeding now
Anyway
It's the way
I am leaving now
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
Fall away
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
