

Saw Her Smiling

H-Blockx

I saw her smiling, in her own way I saw her smiling, and then I walked away Now the smile that she once had, it's gone away

I miss her smiling, in certain ways I feel like dying, now that she's away And know if we could only touch, we would be O.K.

It's a smile that I can't get out of my head God I'm losing my control (2x) So many times I tried another smile instead It would never be the same I saw her smiling...

[Guitar Solo]

I saw her crying, then I said There's no denying, you're in my head And when finally we touch, we would be O.K.

I saw her smiling, in her own way She's on my mind now, she made me stay Now that finally we touched, everything's O.K.

It's a smile that I can't get out of my head God, I'm losing my control (2x) So many times I've tried another smile instead It would never be the same

I saw her smiling (3x) She's in my head

I saw her smiling (3x) Everything's O.K. YEAH!
