

Hold Me In Your Arms

H & Claire

So hold me in your arms don't let me go
Don't hold back your heart and let me know
Your deepest secrets
I'll keep them for all of time

When I hold you in my arms
And I know that you are mine
I know this love will be forever
It will last for all of time

When I look into your eyes
And I see into your heart
I see this love will be forever
It will last for all of time

Now I'm a thousand miles apart
From where you are and from your heart
There must be something I could say
To bring you close to me again

When you came into my earth
You were my man I was your girl
Now separated by our differences
But I still feel the same
