

Invincible

H & Claire

Without joy, without care
Without love, tell me
What is there?
Without hope, without pride
Without love, tell me
What are you and I?
Even after all this time
You're still the only one
I long to keep forever more
We've only just begun

Whenever I'm falling small
You make me invincible
The answer always seems to
Be right here next to me

Without you, without me
Without love, tell me
What are we?
Without fire, without steel
Without love, tell me
How do we feel?
Anytime that we're apart
My heart is there with you
If I feel that I can't go on
I just think of you

Every day I feel as though
I'm more in love with you
The sunshine and the reason for everything I do
Now and forever we'll stay together, I know

Whenever I'm falling small
You make me invincible
The answer always seems to be
The answer always seems to
Right here next to me
