

No Turning Back

H & Claire

Love has never looked so beautiful

I can't believe it
You're standing here in front of me
Like a promise
Like a breath of honesty
I surrender to this feeling in my soul
And my heart's desire
Can't pretend I'm not about to lose control
I'm falling for the fire

Love has never ever looked so beautiful
Never ever felt so wonderful
So wonderful
There's no turning back
I'm falling for the fire
Love is making me believe in miracles
Making me believe I'm home again
I'm whole again
There's no turning back
No turning back from here

You won me over
In just a second the skies were clear
I saw the sunrise, I heard the music
And lost my fear
I surrender to this feeling in my soul
And my heart's desire
Can't pretend I'm not about to lose control
I'm falling for the fire

I'll sing you a love song
Write you a letter
Paint you a picture
Of how it could be
I'll sing you a love song
Last you a lifetime
Open your eyes and you'll see
It's you and me

(Love has never ever looked so beautiful
Never ever felt so wonderful
So wonderful
There's no turning back
I'm falling for the fire)
Love is making me believe in miracles
Making me believe I'm home again
I'm whole again
There's no turning back
No turning back from here baby
