

You're A Love Song

H & Claire

If the world was mine, to give I'd hand it over
On a silver platter, resting on my shoulder
But all I have is what you see
I'd give the universe
If it was up to me
When you walk into a room
I am drawn, uncontrollably to you
How the music starts to rise
When I look into your eyes

You're a love song, just waiting to happen
You're the music in me, everlasting
You're every love song
That ever was imagined to me
If I compare you to anything
You're the love song, I always wanted to sing

If these words sound kind of crazy
That's the way I am
I've been a wanderer, till I met you
But then again
They say love changes everything
You took this broken heart
And taught it how to sing

I know it's sentimental
How my heart hits the floor
When you look at me that way
And the music starts to soar

You're a love song, just waiting to happen
You're the music in me, everlasting
You're every love song
That ever was imagined to me
(You're the sweetest melody, that sets me forever free)

You're the love song, I always wanted to sing
