

Flesh and Bone

(həd) p.e.

Another runaway train
come and get me...
Another runaway train
come and get me
I'm just a runaway train come and get me
indecision, a bad decision

Chorus:
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hallelujah I'm coming home
just let me walk away
before I lose my faith
I'm running thru the shadows,
in a circle
trying to find my way

Chorus
who's standing in my way?
Why won't you just go away?
nobody's listening
there's nobody home
nothing lasts forever
when you're flesh and bone

Another lost soul,
come and get me
another lost soul
come and get me
I'm just another lost soul,
come and get me
find a window
I will be waiting

Chorus:
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
Hey man,
I see you at the crossroads
I'm running thru the shadows,
in a circle

Chorus:
Who's standing in my way?
nobody's listening

nothing lasts forever

Where are we going and, what can we hold on to?
Why can't you stand by me and see what I'm going thru?

Just let me walk away
I'm running thru the shadows,
in a circle
trying to find my way

Chorus:

Who's standing in my way?
there's nobody home
nothing lasts forever

we're only flesh and bone
I'm only flesh and bone
