

Game Over

(həd) p.e.

It was all a dream
I was smoking all the finest weed
Like a Kottonmouth King
I never find a seed
I'm like Sid Vicious in '78
I wake up handcuffed
But i'm doing it "my way"
Stop, listen, what's that sound?
That's the sound of a revolution
The underground
That's the sound of my heartbeat
Wardrums pound like a
Hey yah yah yah
You know i'm down
I'm a rebel, i'm warrior
I'm a sad clown
That's why i drink til the sun goes down
That's why i smoke when i wake up
And stay so high
Nobody wants to see the soldiers die
Nobody understands the muslims eye
Everybody understands the word survival
That's why we invest in the smith and wesson
That's why we gotta stay ready for any enemies testin' me
I pity the fool who gets between me and my destiny
I take you to school stoopid
I teach you a lesson not to fuck with me
Little bitch, i'm a god
Besides motherfucker, who's side you on?
Come on

Uh, i need some hed
Say uh i need some hed

Game over - We're taking over
I'm on the frontline - I'm a soldier
Your a liar - A vampire
I tell the truth
I wear a blue collar

I refuse to throw my life away

Checkmate

Game over
This a take over
We can talk about it
Or we can go to war
I'm a soldier bitch
You a motherfucking pussy
I fuck you so hard
Like i fuck this groupie
I cant be stopped
I'm solar powered
I'm a new school rebel
You an old school coward
A black ayran

I been here before man
American made new world warrior
I dont give a fuck what you think about me
If you know, then you shouldnt ask about me
Mr. Hip hop - Mr. Punk Rock - Mr. Huntington beach
It's ya boy Jahred, it's not what you expected
The most deff, the most hardcore respected
One gun - number one - still most requested
Ha, i teach a girl to cum in one easy lesson
Teach a fan to look around him and question
The media, and the public school system
Rosicrucians and the freemasons
Could some sand niggas pull of 9/11?
Is there really a hell and a heaven?
NO, what do you think Jesus meant
When he said "be born again"
That nigga was talkin' about reincarnation
Ha that's enough knowledge for now
Pass me that joint
Bitch it's going out
Take a hit

Uh, i need some hed

Game over - We're taking over
I'm on the frontline - I'm a soldier

I refuse to throw my life away
You can't throw my life away

I'd rather be dead then be a fucking prisoner
Of your matrix of fucking consumer bullshit
Go ahead spend your money on some stupid fucking trend
Some shit that's gonna be gone by next year
Wear your hair like a girl
Wear girls pants like a fucking queer
Keep crying about your little cheating slut of a girlfriend
Like a fucking little baby
Be a man

Checkmate

The signs are all around you
Yo man, you hear something
You dont know what i'm talking about
Wikipedia that shit
Stay informed man
Dont get trapped in a comb cage
