

All The Nights

H.E.A.T

Waking up, falling back into your arms
You're not really here at all
Only in my mind!
Take away, take this humming out of me
Like a ghost I cannot see
Keeping hope alike
When I hear you
And you say yeah,
And I reach
There's not anybody out there!

All of these nights are likes
I'll have you back,
But I know that common lies
I'll open up my eyes
And I'll realize
Only dreams I'll keep in this normal life
All the nights are lies!

Don't believe the paper on the only train
It's another day again, living without you!
Once in there, only precious hours ago
You are mine to love and hold
Keeps me all confused
When I hear you, and you say yeah
And I reach
Is there anybody out there?

All of these nights are likes
I'll have you back,
But I know that common lies
I'll open up my eyes
And I'll realize
Only dreams I'll keep in this normal life
All the nights are lies!

Keeping hope alike
Another day goes by
You know I can't take it no more.

All of these nights are likes
I'll have you back,
But I know that common lies
I'll open up my eyes
And I'll realize
Only dreams I'll keep in this normal life
All the nights are lies!
All the nights are lies!
