

Cry

H.E.A.T

I feel the rain that's falling down on me
I see that night has already gone

And all around, find soft wispers of you
And in my mind, you're allways there
To keep me warm with, what you say

Cry, for the love you given me
I cry for the love you given me

And in a movement of my heart
I see your soul
A broken mirror reflecting the pieces (Of our dream)

And all around, find soft wispers of you
And in my mind, you're allways there
To keep me warm with, what you say

Cry, for the love you given me
I cry for the love you given me

Cry, cry, cry
For the love you given me
Ooh Yeah (Cry, for the love you given me)
I cry for the love you given me
I cry for the love you given me (I cry)
I cry for the love you given me
