

Keep On Dreaming

H.E.A.T

Every time I think of all those days we could have had
I get that feeling that its time to leave this town
Words makes no difference you can never reach the past
Dare brake the silence I'm a generation lost

Give me the lust and fire
Give me the strength of desire
Show me the way

I always say keep on dreaming
Someday you will find out
Maybe today you'll get that feeling
And you will know what it's about

Every time I dream about those gleaming glory days
I really overload and push my limits free
I feel the hunger for the legacy of vengeance
The sound that brakes the silence
Is the answer to my prayers

(I always say keep on dreaming)
