

Strength

Hacride

You progress without stopping.
you face, your destiny to develop wisdom of the depths.
Our strength

Your mystery exists we are blind and deaf and we believe that we know but your presence compete with life
Depths and abysses full of cells
The power that influences the world to become imbued with your depths You hang on life
Your environment is your strength Death don't exist

Depths and abysses full of cells
Our strength of will

Our strength of will Strength, you hang on life
