

Mecha Love

Hadouken!

Remember, in days gone past
I spied you through a wall of glass
And there you were, kicking my heart back and forth
But now you're not so tall

You wanted the world
You wanted it all
You wanted the world
You wanted it all
You wanted the world
You wanted it all
You wanted the world

So here it is (So here it is)
The planets cry
We'll rip the stellar sky
Make way when worlds collide
I know your heart but still will reconcile your mecha love
You hold your thoughts so tall
You think you've got it all

You won't break my armor
I will never surrender

Take a walk

So this is the last stand
So this is your last chance
So this is your last

You wanted the world
You wanted it all

'Cause I'm ready for war
My exoskeleton
I'm not a passenger, I am the carrier
I know this vessel will withstand all of your mecha love
I've got you figured out (2x)

You won't break my armor
I will never surrender

Take a walk

So this is the last stand
So this is your last chance
So this is your last

You wanted the world
You wanted it all
You wanted the world
You wanted it all
