

Black Seed

Haken

Thirsty seeds wont grow without celestial flow
From the blood of the earth
Or tears of the gods
Bring forth life

Burning tree
Ash in the breeze
Land on fire
Human desire for rising flames
Blackened remains
All is still

Rising through the earth
And let the light summon birth
Reaching arms to the sun
Or beckoned by god
Brings forth life

Falling tree
Death in the leaves
Land in pain
All in vain of
Wounded hearts
Scattered remains
All is still

Life
Endless paradise
Bound to a destined demise
Come alive
Dancing in the wind
Beauty tainted by sin

Sin of man dont bite the hand that feeds
Respect the tree that gives you air to breathe
Resist the need to feed the black seed of human greed
Is the curse that holds us in its grasp
But nature will prevail
Will nature prevail?
Only time will tell if nature will prevail!

Endless paradise
Bound to a destined demise

I'm still alive
Dancing in the wind
Beauty tainted by sin
Tainted by sin

Standing free
Hope in the trees
Breath of life
Nature's desire for healing scars
The forest remains
All is still
