

Take No

Hale

I've gone away and went through hell and back and...I never was and will again
All the tears I've held inside Why it had to be this long and I have failed to see I would've wanted you gone
I, but it's just too soon
All the times I kept you outside Why you had to be so strong
and I have failed to see These dreams they haunt me back praise fate
Cause I'm coming home you...
