

Wishing

Hale

Landscapes in the wild
Upon a shore of a sea open wide
The great escape from your wife
She's the best mistake of your life
Always starts when you cry
Never ends with a smile
All you've said was a big, big lie
On the wings of love we falter
A day with you a big disaster
Soon forever will be over
How I wish
Never has a sweet November
All I had was a dark October
For a while I wanted to die
But I said why oh why
