

Shadows Of My Heart

Halestorm

I feel you, washing over me
I touch you, like broken glass under my feet
Carefully, taking hold of my heart
Slowly, tearing it apart....tearing it apart

R: With these tears I cry
Lord knows I tried
Now how can I let go
When you dwell in the shadows of my heart

Maybe you can't remember, something you'd never forget
Something you needed to know, is something I'll always regret
Now I stand here broken, the love I wanted you never held to
No no.. you brought me down to my knees
And I went through hell for you...through hell for you

R:

No no no...

Dwell in the shadows of my heart, slowly tearing me apart
(2x)

R:

Now how can I let go..when you dwell in the shadows of my heart
