

Put Some Sugar on It

Half Japanese

She said seek and ye shall find it
But from where I saw it, I couldn't see it
Come over here where the light's better
Come over here to my side

Put some sugar on it honey
Put some honey on it sugar
I like it sweet
And I want to eat

I knew exactly what I was doing
But I didn't know what I had done
I know one thing and one thing only
That I need you and want you
Right over here

Put some sugar on it honey
Put some honey on it sugar
I like it sweet
And baby, oh baby, oh baby, oh

The moon came out at night
And it lit two silhouettes on the sand
One was a woman and one was a man
Two silhouettes on the sand

Put some sugar on it honey
Put some honey on it sugar
I like to eat
And baby I like it sweet
Oh baby, oh

I'm looking over my left shoulder
And I'm throwing something over my right shoulder
And I'm throwing caution to the wind
Caution to the wind

Put some sugar on it honey
Put some honey on it sugar
I like it sweet baby
I really do
Oh baby
Oh
