

Consider Yourself

Half Moon Run

Consider yourself
Like a dumb machine
With a laser heart
And a leather spleen

Do you consider yourself
In the silver screen
In today's news
And the magazines

Consider yourself
Like a drum machine
You're keeping perfect time
It's your fantasy

Do you consider yourself
In an all out war
There are no rules
You can do no wrong

Die for nothing
Sleepless soul
Now you gonna feel
It's better thought you were Real

Convince yourself
It's a one way dream
You always come
But you can never leave

Brace yourself
That you can make the leap
This is the greatest place
That you'll ever see

Die for nothing
Sleepless soul
Now you gonna feel
There's only black and red
Out there

I'm running out
All out of road
Circling around

Brace yourself
Take a dive
This is the deadline
